The FCIHE Update is a bimonthly brief of new and/or timely resources, events, and news on Florida's inclusive postsecondary education programs (IPSE). Resources and conferences are added weekly on our website.

The 2018 Annual Hartwick Symposium Series: Self-Advocates

The 2018 Annual Hartwick Symposium: Self-Advocates is an annual one-day symposium for young adults with intellectual disability enrolled in one of Florida's inclusive postsecondary education programs.

This Symposium provides multiple opportunities for college students with ID to learn, engage, network, and share information and resources about college, independence, employment, self-determination, and community.

The symposium on February 2nd, 2018, takes place at the Florida Hotel and Conference Center. While registration is now closed, if you have an IPSE program at your college or university, keep your eye on attending next year! Check www.FCIHE.com for updates.

The 6th Annual FLSAND "My Voice Matters" Conference will take place at the Florida Hotel and Conference Center February 2nd – 4th, kicking off with a pre-conference mixer at 7 PM on Friday, the 2nd. All Hartwick Symposium attendees are welcomed to attend.
